

C2C Resources is now an IBPI Preferred Vendor Partner

C2C Resources, (www.c2cresources.com) an industry leader in commercial debt collection, has partnered with International Business Products Inc. (IBPI) to provide accounts receivable collection services to more than 500 members of IBPI. As a Preferred Vendor Partner, C2C Resources will offer education, tools and communication to your accounts receivable collection efforts.

“It is so important to have a professional to turn to when a dealer has exhausted all efforts in collecting from a client” said Mark Grice, Executive Director at IBPI. “C2C Resources will not only provide those collection efforts but also education and tools to the IBPI Member to improve their cash flow. We are thrilled to add C2C Resources to our growing list of outstanding Vendor Partners.”

“We are very excited to begin our relationship with IBPI and its Members.” said Howard Updegraff, Executive Vice President of C2C Resources. “C2C Resources is a global commercial collections agency for businesses of all sizes. We specialize in bad debt recovery using innovative technology and the most sophisticated collectors and investigators in the industry. Since 2002, we have been trusted as a collections partner by tens of thousands of clients collecting over $500 million in bad debt accounts on a contingency basis. Our custom solutions streamline debt management functions, reduce costs, mitigate risks, and boost cash flow performance. As your partners in profitability, we continuously enhance and improve your entire receivables management process.”

About IBPI

IBPI (www.IBPI.net) is the largest buying group in the office equipment industry. Their membership is composed of over 500 commercial copier and print dealers located throughout the United States and Canada. Since 1987, IBPI has built an outstanding reputation, based upon bringing tremendous buying power to dealers. Members get discounted pricing from vendors and a rebate check every year based on their purchases. IBPI is committed to combining the buying power of its' membership through purchasing programs negotiated with vendors who provide quality products and services.

About C2C Resources

C2C Resources (www.c2cresources.com) is a global Commercial Debt Collection agency headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia. C2C Resources collects commercial debt on behalf of their over 20,000 clients and is considered one of the top agencies in the country. The executive team at C2C brings more than 60 years of experience helping businesses collect their accounts receivable. C2C's powerful combination of Profit Maximizer, InfoMax Collection System, and Legal Forwarding Edge, can help your company be more effective with your own in-house collecting and maximize recovery of accounts turned over for collection.

For more information, please contact:

Rick Scinta

Primary Account Manager and Association Liaison

rscinta@c2cresources.com

866.495.0050 x307