

Prosperity Plus is now an IBPI Preferred Vendor Partner!

Prosperity Plus (www.prosperityplus.com), an industry leader in administrative, financial and marketing consulting, has partnered with IBPI (www.ibpi.net) to provide an array of programs and services built to assist dealers in adding value to their business. As a preferred partner, Prosperity Plus will provide four programs for IBPI Members:

Value Builder

Business Analysis

Mergers & Acquisitions

Marketing Communications

“IBPI is extremely excited to partner with a proven leader in our industry.” said Mark Grice, Executive Director at IBPI. “Prosperity Plus has been providing consulting and advice to this industry for over 20 years. Jim Kahrs and his group make a great addition to the IBPI team of Vendor Partners.”

“We are very pleased to be a part of the IBPI group as a preferred vendor,” said Jim Kahrs, President and Founder, Prosperity Plus. “This group has never veered from its purpose of helping its members strengthen their identities and independence in their marketplaces from the bottom line up. That has been a big part of our mission for more than 20 years. So, our philosophies align very well.”

About IBPI

IBPI (www.IBPI.net) is the largest buying group in the office equipment industry. Their membership is composed of over 500 commercial copier and print dealers located throughout the United States and Canada. Since 1987, IBPI has built an outstanding reputation, based upon bringing tremendous buying power to dealers. Members get discounted pricing from vendors and a rebate check every year based on their purchases. IBPI is committed to combining the buying power of its' membership through purchasing programs negotiated with vendors who provide quality products and services.

About Prosperity Plus

Since 2001, Prosperity Plus Management Consulting, Inc. has helped business systems dealerships achieve their goals in terms of profitability, cash flow and growth. The company is licensed to deliver administrative, financial, and marketing consulting based on the highly successful Hubbard® Management System which has been used among businesses worldwide and in just about every industry or profession you can imagine. That system, along with the group's industry experience, has made hundreds of organizations saner, more productive, and very often twice as profitable in less than year. Much of that success is also driven by the ValueBuilder System™ which Prosperity Plus uses to help dealerships increase company value and position themselves for a premium offer when they are ready to sell.

For more information, please contact:

Jim Kahrs

jkahrs@prosperityplus.com

631-382-7762, ext. 101